Day	Detail Itinerary
Day 01	Chitose/Noboribetsu Shiraoi Ainu Village/Jigokudani Hell Valley/Lake Toya (Dinner) Upon arrival you will meet with our representative Noboribetsu Shiraoi Ainu Village-The Shiraoi Ainu Museum is one of the country's best museums and an open air museum, which is also commonly known as Porotokotan (meaning large lakeside village in the thatched houses along the shore of Lake Poroto. Each of the houses at Porotokotan demonstrates different aspects of Ainu culture and lifestyle. One of the activities (at 15 minutes after the hour) with traditional Ainu folk dances, songs and mouth harp demonstrations. One of the spirits of dead bears, was designated a UNESCO intangible cultural property in 2009. Jigokudani Hell Valley - Jigokudani or "Hell Valley" is a spectacular, appropriately named valley just above the lake. It features steam vents, sulfurous streams and other volcanic activity. It is a main source of Noboribetsu's hot springs. Lake Toya- Lake Toya is part of the Shikotsu-Toya National Park. In addition to the lake itself, the Toya area includes Mount Usu, which last erupted in the year 2000. The area also offers many fishing, hiking, and camping opportunities.
Day 02	Lake Toya/Mt. Showa/Bear Ranch/Otaru Canal/Kitaichi Glass Museum/Music Box Museum Lake Toya- Lake Toya is part of the Shikotsu-Toya National Park. In addition to the lake itself, the Toya area includes Mount Usu, which last erupted in the year 2000. The area also offers many fishing, hiking, and camping opportunities. Mount Showa- Showa Shinzan is one of Japan's youngest mountains. Accompanied by earthquakes, its current height of 290 meters between 1943 and 1945. The mountain was named "Showa New Mountain" (1926-1989). Bear Ranch -About 200 brown bears are raised at the Bear Farm at the summit of Mt. Shihorei to the age of 10. There is a "cage for humans" in the first farm, where observation from the viewpoint of bears is possible. The age and habits of brown bears are presented using 500 materials and videos. Otaru Canal-Otaru Canal was a central part of the city's busy port in the first half of the 20th century. It transported the goods to warehouses along the canal. Kitaichi Glass-Other than the desserts and music boxes, you can also find beautiful glassware in Otaru. The most famous and oldest place in Otaru to discover this glassy treasure. Kitaichi is the pioneer of Chiyohara kerosene oil lamps before electricity and then later produced glass buoys for Otaru's booming herring industry. Music Box Museum-Walking along Otaru's Sakaimachi Street is like opening a giant music box. The place you always remember is how sweet the chimes of music mixes with the gloomy cold weather at this port town. The whole street of Sakaimachi is a showcase of two Otaru's distinct characteristics- old architecture and music boxes.
Day 03	Otaru/Ishiya Chocolate Factory/Sapporo (Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner) Otaru - Otaru is a small harbor city, about half an hour northwest of Sapporo by train. Its beautiful port and scenic views make Otaru a pleasant day trip from Sapporo or a nice stop en route to or from Niseko or the Shakotan Peninsula. Ishiya Chocolate Factory -Shiroi Koibito Park is a fantastic space based on the ideals of deliciousness and beauty. It is housing the Shiroi Koibito FACTORY where this well-known Hokkaido confectionery is produced, the

	original sweets, the Cookiecraft Studio (where budding confectioners can try their hand at making the Rose Garden.
