

Okutama Autumn Leaf Viewing, Persimmon-drying Village Visit with Persimmon-picking & Crab Hot Pot Lunch

08:05-08:15

Reception & Departure from Check-in Counter at 3F Main Tower, Keio Plaza Hotel Shinjuku 🚗

The interpreter-guide or a staff will conduct check-in.
[Access to the Hotel] 5 minutes on foot from Shinjuku Station West Exit (JR Lines, Subway), or 1 minute on foot from Tochomae Station B1 Exit (Toei Oedo Line)

09:45-10:30

Mitake Valley Autumn Leaf Viewing (45 min)

Take a stroll around and find yourself in an enchanting world at Mitake Valley, a spectacular sightseeing spot located up the Tama River.

Please note that the foliage may not have changed colors yet, or may have already fallen due to climate conditions. The tour will not be cancelled or refunded in such cases. Typical autumn leaves season is from early to late November.

11:15-11:45

Lake Okutama Autumn Leaf Viewing (30 min)

One of the best autumn leaf viewing spots, this area lies right at the border between Tokyo and Yamanashi Prefecture. The mountains covered in fall colors contrasted with the lake form a breathtaking panorama that's simply superb.

13:00-14:00

Lunch in Enzan (60 min)

Meal menu: Hoto hot pot with Japanese blue crab, Fuji Sakura pork shabu-shabu, Rice, Pickled vegetables

*Menu is subject to change. Please understand that there is no vegetarian option available for lunch.

14:10-14:40

Korogaki no Sato (30 min)

See numerous persimmons being hung to dry outside the village houses. Lay your eyes on a unique sight as curtains of bright orange persimmons strung like beads are hung out to dry under the sun.

The drying period for persimmons at Korogaki no Sato may vary somewhat depending on climate or weather conditions. Please note that dried persimmons will not be offered.

15:20-16:00

Persimmon Picking (40 min)

Enjoy picking persimmons (2 pieces).

Reminders for Persimmon Picking:

Young children ages 3 ~ 5 require an admission fee of JPY 400 to enter the farm. Please pay on your own, in cash upon admission to the farm. (Even if a child is 3-5 years old, if their booking was made under the child rate, the admission fee is not required.) The farm admission fee for young children ages 0~2 is free.

If fruits are not ripe for picking due to weather conditions, the tour may be cancelled. Depending on the weather, the group may be given fruits as souvenirs instead. Large bags or luggage are not allowed in the fruit picking area. 2 fruits will be picked for the fruit picking.

18:00-18:30

Near Shinjuku Station West Exit

Tour ends after arrival.
