Day 3

Mt Fuji, Hakone, 1 Day Bus Trip from Tokyo

Lake Ashi & Sea Torii Gate

Enjoy the stunning views of Mount Fuji reflected on the peaceful waters of Lake Ashi. The iconic red torii gate rising from the lake makes for one of Japan's most picturesque scenes.

Hakone Shrine

Nestled at the foot of Mount Hakone and surrounded by towering cedars, Hakone Shrine is a sacred spot offering serenity and spiritual charm. Its torii gate by the lake is a symbol of peace and good fortune.

Hakone Pirate Ship Cruise

Set sail across Lake Ashi on a themed pirate ship while admiring panoramic mountain views. This scenic cruise offers a fun and unique way to explore Hakone's natural beauty.

Hakone Ropeway

Take an aerial ride above the mountains and valleys on the Hakone Ropeway. Enjoy breathtaking views of Mount Fuji, Owakudani's volcanic landscape, and the shimmering Lake Ashi below.

Owakudani Valley

Known as the "Valley of Hell," Owakudani is a volcanic area with steaming vents and sulfur springs. Try the famous black eggs boiled in hot springs—said to add years to your life!

Yamanakako Lake

The largest of the Fuji Five Lakes, Yamanakako offers incredible views of Mount Fuji's reflection on calm waters. It's a peaceful retreat for nature lovers and photographers alike.

Oshino Hakkai

Visit this charming village with eight crystal-clear ponds fed by Mount Fuji's melted snow. The traditional thatched-roof houses and pure spring water create a picture-perfect Japanese countryside scene.
